SEARCHING FOR TWO GIRLS

Virginia Sisters, Thought to Be in Bal-Virginia Sisters, Thought to Be in Baltimore, Have Money Awaiting Them.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BALTIMORE, MD., November 11.—
Where are Georgie and Goldie Scott, two pretty sisters, who left their home in Virginia a year ago, presumably to seek employment in Baltimore? Have they been kidnapped?

These are the questions that are now puzzling Marshai Farnan, twen ny-five detectives and several hundred uniformed men. Down in Guilford, Va., there is a sum of money awaiting the
two girls, and the people in that town, and desirable and desirable are increased in the people in that town, all of the people in that town, and increased increased and increased are an unusually well controlled arranged and in the people in that town, all of whom knew the sisters well are anxiously awaiting information as to their whereabouts. In the marshal's mail this morning was a communication from Jos. R. Riggs, a merchant of Guilford, stating that a sum of monoy awaited both Georgie and Goldle Scott, and the writer requests the marshal to find them.

Counsel for Angle Claims New Indictment Was Improperly Drawn.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., Novomber II.—A new indictment was returned in the United States Court here this afternoon against against T. M. Angle, of Pitnylvania oounty, formorpresident of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, for violation of sections 3256, 3257 and 2281 of the United States Revised Statutes When the case was called against Angle and he was arraigned the defense filed a plea, of abatement, which had for its objectite quashing or the indictment. It was alleged that the indictment was improperly returned, and that a roll call of the grand jury was not taken.

The jury in the case of John Griffey, of Franklin county, charged with illicit distilling, failed to agree and was discharged this morning.
